ITALY MAKES PROGRESS IN RECONSTRUCTION

HUGE REBUILDING PROGRAM IS NOW WELL UNDER WAY

Venetia and Trentino War Areas Call for Great Expenditures

30,000 HOUSES BUILT

Two Thousand Public Buildings Erected or Repaired.

The Italian ministry of liberated summary of the immense task of construction accomplished so far. The report, in part, follows:

"As soon as the armistice was from New York. provide for the needs of 2,500,000 of about one cent up to noon, with prices both higher and lower than Saturday's flush. The trade expected a decrease in the visible supply, but there was a lack of support at times, and the average of prices at times, and the average of prices at times, and the average of prices at times. proclamed, the government had to 2,880 miles of road and 239 bridges were repaired, and 100 miles of raflway relaid. Miles of river em-bankment had to be remade; structural repairs were carried out in 76.633 houses, prior to rebuilding the 91.498 totally or partially de-stroyed. Pending this, the popula-tion had to be housed in temporary structures, of which 9.811 were put up in the first seven months of 1919; during this tmie army engineers repaired 26,375 buildings and replaced over 237,480 doors and windows.

Reconstruction in Venice.

'From July, 1919, to July, 1921, structural repairs were made to more than 30,200 houses, and 2,000 public buildings were rebuilt and repaired in the liberated provinces. At the same time, 249 schools and churches and 2,500 houses were re-paired in Julian Venetia, and 700 public buildings and 17,000 houses in the Trentino

From October, 1313, to the end of September, 1321, 1.690,000,000 lire have been paid in indemnities for war losses, through the agency of the 'Federal Bank for the Reconstruction of the Vene for the Reconstruction of the Vene tian Provinces, a public utility in-stitute formed for this purpose. The formation among the sufferers of co-operative building associations and consortiums has been actively encouraged, with splendid results: 65,410 persons are thus organized in 628 associations, united in a federation provided with its own co-operative banks.

War Works Destroyed.

"Agricultural reconstruction en-tailed the collection of live shells and bombs scattered over 238,000 acres of land, the removal of 2,miles of barbed wire, the 300,000 miles of barbed wire, the filling in of 1,192 miles of trenches, and the collection of tens of thousands of tons of scrap iron, etc. The next need was to reconstitute the livestock of the region. No fewer than 320,000 head of cattle were lost during the invasion; the government has so far distributed government has so far distributed 56,560 head in their stead, also 54. tributed gratis, 980 pieces of agri-cultural machinery given on credit, and 250 tractors sold at from 40 40a47c.
